STATUTORY INSTRUMENT 2009 NO.47
FINANCIAL SERVICES COMMISSION ACT, 2001
(No. 12 of 2001)

Financial Services (Prudential and Statistical Returns) Order, 2009

[Gazetted 12th November, 2009]

The Financial Services Commission, acting in accordance with the powers conferred on it by section 56A of the Financial Services Commission Act, 2001 (No. 12 of 2001), makes the following Order:

- Citation. 1. This Order may be cited as the Financial Services (Prudential and Statistical Returns) Order, 2009.
- Interpretation. 2. In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires,
- No. 12 of 2001 “Act” means the Financial Services Commission Act, 2001;
- “applicable Schedule” or “relevant Schedule” refers to any of the Schedules outlined in this Order as may be applicable in relation to a regulated person;
- “Commission” means the Financial Services Commission established under section 3 (1) of the Financial Services Commission Act, 2001; and
- “regulated person” means a person authorized, licensed, registered or recognized or required to be so authorized, licensed, registered or recognized under a regulatory legislation referred to in Part 1 of Schedule 1 of the Financial Services Commission Act, 2001.
- Objectives. 3. (1) The objectives of this Order are:
- (a) to facilitate the timely preparation and submission by regulated persons of prudential and statistical returns required by the Commission in order to enable the Commission
- (i) to identify any problems on a timely basis to safeguard the interests of its licensees, the financial services industry and the reputation of the Territory; and

- (ii) to analyse and develop relevant statistical data for use by the Commission or for public dissemination;
- (b) to enable the Commission to appropriately respond to requests for information consistent with its international obligations as a regulatory body or by virtue of its membership, observer status or other connection with any domestic or international institution or pursuant to any memorandum of understanding or other agreement or commitment which is consistent with its functions as a regulatory body;
- (c) to facilitate the Commission in the discharge of its duties or exercise of its powers under the Financial Services Commission Act, 2001; and
- (d) to facilitate the electronic filing of prudential and statistical returns in a more efficient manner thereby ensuring timeliness and reduced administrative costs.

(2) Any prudential or statistical return received by the Commission pursuant to this Order shall be used only for the purposes outlined in section 56A of the Act and in pursuance of the objectives outlined in subsection (1).

4. (1) Every regulated person shall file with the Commission the relevant prudential or statistical return in accordance with the requirements of the relevant Schedule applicable in the regulated person's case.

Filing
returns.

(2) It is the duty of every regulated person to ensure that the information contained in any prudential or statistical return filed pursuant to subsection (1) is accurate and complete.

(3) A prudential or statistical return filed under subsection (1) shall not be considered to be properly filed or to be accepted by the Commission if

- (a) it is not fully completed by providing all the relevant information required;
- (b) it contains any information that is materially inaccurate or misleading;
- (c) within a period of seven days after the date it has been filed, the Commission rejects it and notifies the regulated person concerned in writing, providing the reason for the rejection; or
- (d) section 8 (2) applies, to the extent stated therein.

(4) For the purposes of

- (a) subsection (3) (a), a prudential or statistical return shall not be considered to be incomplete simply on account of the absence of information which does not apply in the case of the regulated person concerned or which, on account of the regulated person not engaging in any business for any particular period, is not available;
- (b) subsection (3) (b), information contained in a prudential or statistical return is considered to be materially inaccurate or misleading if the Commission is satisfied that the information
 - (i) is wrong and cannot be relied upon for the purposes of section 56A of the Act or section 3 of this Order;
 - (ii) has persistent errors that are not of a clerical nature; or
 - (iii) is otherwise provided in a manner not consistent with the requirements of the applicable Schedule or any provision of this Order.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (4) (a), the onus is on the regulated person that claims to be unable to provide a required information in a prudential or statistical return on account of not having engaged in business for any particular period to prove the claim to the satisfaction of the Commission and in this regard the Commission may require such information as it considers appropriate.

Period for filing returns. 5. (1) The period within which a prudential or statistical return must be filed by a regulated person shall be that provided in the Relevant Schedule.

(2) Nothing contained in this Order affects the operation of any time frame for the provision of any report, statement, return or other obligation under the Act or any regulatory legislation.

Extension for filing returns. 6. (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the Commission may, upon written application received from a regulated person, grant an extension for the filing of a prudential or statistical return by the regulated person for a period of up to thirty days.

- (2) The Commission shall not exercise the power conferred under subsection (1)
 - (a) unless the written application for extension of time is received by the Commission at least seven days before the date of expiry of the period stipulated in the applicable Schedule in respect of a prudential or statistical return;
 - (b) if a prudential or statistical return required of the regulated person for any period remains outstanding prior to the date of receipt of the written application for extension of time;

- (c) if at the date of receipt of an application for extension of time any penalty imposed on or applicable to a regulated person remains unpaid;
- (d) if the reason for the written application for extension of time relates to the absence of a particular officer from office, occurrence of a vacancy, shortage of staff or pressure of work or other similar reason; or
- (e) if for any reason the Commission considers that it is not appropriate or in the interest of the due performance of its functions to grant an extension of time.

(3) In making a decision on an application for extension of time under subsection (1), the Commission shall have regard to the following matters:

- (a) whether the delay in submitting a prudential or statistical return is due to an act of nature beyond the control of the regulated person, such as the occurrence of a hurricane, earthquake, tsunami or other natural cause which has affected the efficient functioning of the regulated person;
- (b) whether the operations of the regulated person have been adversely affected by a fire or flood on its premises or other premises at which it maintains its records and for which the regulated person is not responsible;
- (c) whether the records of the regulated person have been stolen or severely interfered with in a robbery, for instance, as to make it difficult to comply with the required deadline for the filing of prudential or statistical returns;
- (d) where audited financial statements are required but have not been received, whether there is a written confirmation from the regulated person's auditor that the audit is incomplete and providing reason for the delay and when the audit is likely to be completed;
- (e) the compliance culture of the regulated person and whether the regulated person is likely to comply with its obligations if granted an extension of time;
- (f) whether there is any other reason provided by the regulated person which the Commission considers compelling and acceptable.

(4) The onus is on the regulated person that seeks to rely on any of the matters outlined in subsection (3) to provide sufficient information to the Commission in support of its written application for extension of time and the Commission may require such other information from the regulated person as it considers appropriate for the purpose of making its decision.

Rectification of filed returns.
Schedule 4

7. (1) Where, after filing a prudential or statistical return, a regulated person becomes aware that the return contains information that is inaccurate or misleading, it shall, within five days of becoming so aware, notify the Commission of that fact in writing in accordance with Part I of Schedule 4 and provide the accurate information.

(2) Where, after receiving and accepting a prudential or statistical return filed with it, the Commission discovers or becomes aware of information in the return which it is satisfied is materially inaccurate or misleading, it shall notify the regulated person in writing of that fact and require the regulated person concerned to provide the accurate information in accordance with Part I of Schedule 4 within a period of seven days from the date of the notification.

(3) The Commission may notify the regulated person under subsection (2) in accordance with Part II of Schedule 4.

(4) Subject to section 4 (3), no penalty applies in respect of an inaccurate or misleading information contained in a prudential or statistical return which has been discovered or become known by the Commission after the return had been filed with and accepted by the Commission if the regulated person concerned complies with the requirements of subsection (1) or (2), as the case may be.

(5) The provisions of section 6 shall not apply to this section.

Electronic filing of returns.

8. (1) For the purposes of sections 4, 6 and 7, a regulated person may file a prudential or statistical return, or effect a rectification to such return, in an electronic form by utilizing the forms of the returns or rectification as outlined in the relevant Schedules and provided by the Commission on its website or through such other electronic medium as may be provided by the Commission.

(2) Where information relating to a prudential or statistical return is contained in a compact disk or other electronic storage device and transmitted for the purposes of satisfying the requirements of this Order, the return to which the compact disk or other electronic storage device relates shall not be considered to be properly filed and accepted by the Commission if the Commission

(a) is unable to load onto the Commission's systems the information contained in the compact disk or other electronic storage device; and

(b) notifies the regulated person concerned in accordance with section 4 (3)

Application of guidelines.

9. Where the Commission issues guidelines in relation to this Order, the guidelines shall have effect in the application and implementation of the Order.

Penalties.

10. (1) A regulated person that commits the breaches outlined in the second

Schedule 5 column of Schedule 5 is liable to the penalties prescribed in column 3 thereof.

(2) In addition to any penalty imposed on a regulated person under Schedule 5, the Commission may take such other enforcement action as it deems appropriate under the Financial Services Commission Act, 2001 and any applicable regulatory legislation.
