(2) A transaction is an insolvency transaction if

- (a) it is entered into at a time when the debtor is insolvent; or
- (b) it causes the debtor to become insolvent;

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(b), an individual is insolvent if he is unable to pay his debts as they fall due for payment.

(4) This Part applies in respect of an individual only if a bankruptcy order is made against him.

401. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a transaction entered into by an individual is an unfair preference given by the individual to a creditor if the transaction

Unfair preferences.

- (a) is an insolvency transaction;

- (b) is entered into within the vulnerability period; and
- (c) has the effect of putting the creditor into a position which, in the event of the individual becoming a bankrupt, will be better than the position he would have been in if the transaction had not been entered into.

(2) A transaction is not an unfair preference if the transaction took place in the ordinary course of business.

(3) A transaction may be an unfair preference notwithstanding that it is entered into pursuant to the order of a court or tribunal in or outside the Virgin Islands.

(4) Where a transaction entered into by an individual within the vulnerability period has the effect specified in subsection (1)(c) in respect of a creditor who is a connected person, unless the contrary is proved, it is presumed that the transaction was an insolvency transaction and that it did not take place in the ordinary course of business.

Undervalue transactions.

402. (1) Subject to subsection (2), an individual enters into an undervalue transaction with a person if

- (a) he makes a gift to that person or otherwise enters into a transaction with that person on terms that provide for him to receive no consideration; or

- (c) in either case, the transaction concerned
 - (i) is an insolvency transaction; and
 - (ii) is entered into within the vulnerability period.

(2) An individual does not enter into an undervalue transaction with a person if

- (a) the individual enters into the transaction in good faith and for the purposes of his business; and
- (b) at the time when he enters into the transaction, there were reasonable grounds for believing that the transaction would benefit him.

(3) A transaction may be an undervalue transaction notwithstanding that it is entered into pursuant to the order of a court or tribunal in or outside the Virgin Islands.

(4) Where an individual enters into a transaction with a connected person within the vulnerability period and the transaction falls within subsection (1)(a) or subsection (1)(b), unless the contrary is proved, it is presumed that

- (a) the transaction was an insolvency transaction; and
- (b) subsection (2) did not apply to the transaction.

Voidable general assignment of book debts.

(2) The assignment is voidable as regards book debts which were not paid before the filing of the application for the bankruptcy order, unless the assignment has been registered under the Bills of Sale Act.

Cap. 284

(3) For the purposes of subsections (1) and (2),

- (a) “assignment” includes an assignment by way of security or charge on book debts; and
- (b) “general assignment” does not include

 - (ii) an assignment of book debts included either in a transfer of a business made in good faith and for value or in an assignment of assets for the benefit of creditors generally.

(4) For the purposes of registration under the Bills of Sale Act, an assignment of book debts is to be treated as if it were a bill of sale given otherwise by way of security for the payment of a sum of money; and the provisions of that Act with respect to the registration of bills of sale apply accordingly with such necessary modifications as may be made by rules under that Act.

Extortionate
transactions.

404. A transaction entered into by an individual within the vulnerability period for, or involving the provision of, credit to him is an extortionate credit transaction if, having regard to the risk accepted by the person providing the credit,

- (a) the terms of the transaction are or were such as to require grossly exorbitant payments to be made (whether unconditionally or in certain contingencies) in respect of the provision of credit; or
- (b) the transaction otherwise grossly contravenes ordinary principles of fair trading.

Orders in respect of voidable
transactions.

405. (1) Subject to section 406, where it is satisfied that a transaction entered into by an individual is a voidable transaction the Court, on the application of the bankruptcy trustee of the individual,

- (a) may make an order setting aside the transaction in whole or in part;
- (b) in respect of an unfair preference or an undervalue transaction, may make such order as it considers fit for restoring the position to what it would have been if the bankrupt had not entered into that transaction; and
- (c) in respect of an extortionate credit transaction, may by order provide for any one or more of the following:
 - (i) the variation of the terms of the transaction or the terms on which any security interest for the purposes of the transaction is held;
 - (ii) the payment by any person who is or was a party to the transaction to the trustee of any sums paid by the bankrupt to that person by virtue of the transaction;
 - (iii) the surrender by any person to the trustee of any asset held by him as security for the purposes of the transaction; and
 - (iv) the taking of accounts between any persons.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1)(b), an order under that paragraph may

- (a) require any asset transferred as part of the transaction to be vested in the trustee;

- (b) require any asset to be vested in the trustee if it represents in any person's hands the application either of the proceeds of sale of an asset transferred or of money transferred, in either case as part of the transaction;
- (c) release or discharge, in whole or in part, any security interest given by the bankrupt or the liability of the bankrupt under any contract;
- (d) require any person to pay, in respect of benefits received by him from the bankrupt, such sums to the trustee as the Court may direct;
- (e) provide for any surety or guarantor whose obligations to any person were released or discharged, in whole or in part, under the transaction, to be under such new or revived obligations to that person as the Court considers appropriate;
- (f) provide for security to be provided for the discharge of any obligation imposed by or arising under the order, for such an obligation to be charged on any asset and for the security interest or charge to have the same priority as a security interest or charge released or discharged, in whole or in part, under the transaction;
- (g) provide for a person effected by an order made under subsection (1) to prove in the bankruptcy of the bankrupt in such amount as the Court considers fit; and
- (h) require the company to make a payment or transfer an asset to any person affected by an order made under subsection (1).

(3) Subject to section 250, in respect of an unfair preference or an undervalue transaction, an order under subsection (1) may affect the assets of, or impose any obligation on, any person whether or not he is the person with whom the bankrupt entered into the transaction.

406. (1) This section applies to an order made under section 405(1) in respect of an unfair preference or an undervalue transaction.

Limitations on orders under section 405.

- (2) An order to which subsection (1) applies shall not
 - (a) prejudice any interest in an asset that was acquired in good faith and for value from a person other than the bankrupt, or prejudice any interest deriving from such an interest; or
 - (b) require a person who received a benefit from the transaction in good faith and for value to pay a sum to the trustee, except where that person was a party to the transaction or, in respect of an unfair preference, the preference was given to that person when he was a creditor of the bankrupt.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), where a person would, apart from the requirement for good faith, fall within the circumstances specified in paragraph (a) or (b), it is presumed, unless the contrary is proved, that he acquired the interest or received the benefit in good faith.

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply to a person

(a) who, at the time of the transaction, had notice of

(i) the fact that the transaction was an unfair preference or an undervalue transaction, as the case may be; or

(ii) the relevant proceedings as defined in subsection (5); or

(b) who was, at the time of the transaction, a connected person.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (4), a person has notice of the relevant proceedings if he had notice that an application had been made for the bankruptcy of the individual.

Recoveries.

407. Any money paid to, asset recovered or other benefit received by the trustee as a result of an order made under section 405 is deemed to be an asset comprised in the bankrupt's estate that is available to pay his unsecured creditors.

Remedies not exclusive.
