Since the inception of the Financial Services Institute at H. Lavity Stoutt Community College, the support of Dr. Robert Mathavious has been crucial to its survival.

In July 2021, the HLSCC Board of Governors unanimously approved the renaming of the institute to the HLSCC Robert Mathavious Institute for Financial Services.

In an earlier meeting, the HLSCC Board of Governors agreed to designate land on the Paraquita Bay Main Campus for the construction of a building to house the institute.

As the College is currently developing its new Master Plan, resources were dedicated to identifying the location and developing the building concept.
